Dear [redacted]

Your letter of September 16th has been received and I want to take this opportunity to thank you for the kind remarks that you made in my behalf.

While I would like to be of assistance to you, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and neither makes evaluations nor draws conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. Information contained in our files must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice. In view of this, I am sure you will understand why I cannot comment concerning the book, "None Dare Call It Treason," by John A. Stormer, nor can I suggest a source where you could obtain the information you desire. In addition, I hope you will not infer either that we do or do not have information in our files regarding the subject of your inquiry.

It is always reassuring to hear from citizens who demonstrate an awareness of the evils of communism and who desire to combat this threat to our freedoms. I am enclosing some material on the general topic of communism. You may also wish to refer to my books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." The former was written with the hope that it would help readers gain an insight into the true nature of the communist conspiracy in this country. The latter contains an analysis of international communist practices and contrasts totalitarian methods with life in a free country. These books may be available at your local library. I am returning the book which you so thoughtfully forwarded.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you about this book that I have sent along to you. I would like to know if it is an honestly written document or whether it was published by a Communist front Organization for the purpose of turning the American people against the Government?

I know that much of what I have read in this book is true - but still not knowing or fully understanding Communism I could easily be taken in.

Thank You

Dear [redacted]

I received your letter of September 17th enclosing a copy of your communication to Mr. John Stormer in care of the Liberty Bell Press.

With respect to the quotation mentioned, a search of our files was made in February of 1962 when it was brought to our attention. We were unable to locate any reference to this statement and no evaluation was made nor furnished to anyone. It was suggested, however, that individuals interested in this quotation should check with the Library of Congress for further research.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Attached is a copy of a letter addressed to Mr. John Storner asking his help in locating a particular quotation which is attacked in a book by Washington correspondent Richard Dudman. John A. Storner

Since your name is mentioned, I should like to have any available information on this matter. The quoted section in the letter is just as it appears in my paperback copy of the book (page 185). According to the author, the quotation was challenged by Senator Lee Metcalf of Montana and Representative Morris K. Udall of Arizona. I should like to know how much investigation was actually conducted. Also, if it was decided that you and the others mentioned did not know if the quote was authentic since you had no documentation or if you actually stated that the quote was spurious.

Hoping to hear from you soon on this matter, I am

Mr. John Stormer
c/o Liberty Bell Press
Florissant, Missouri

Dear Mr. Stormer:

Recently I read your excellent book, None Dare Call it Treason, and am now passing out copies to a number of fence-sitting friends who are not aware of the threat to our country.

This letter is an appeal for your help. The quotation, "We cannot expect the Americans to jump from capitalism to communism, but we can assist their elected leaders in giving Americans small doses of socialism until they suddenly awake to find they have communism," has been attributed by some conservatives to Nikita Khrushchev. I have seen this quotation at least twice but cannot recall if there was any documentation offered. In typical left-wing "smear" manner, Richard Dudman (Washington correspondent for the St. Louis Post Dispatch) states in his book, Men of the Far Right, that right-wingers have been using the quote but no one has been able to prove it was ever made. He says, "From J. Edgar Hoover, the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, the Library of Congress and the CIA, they got the same answer. No one could find that Khrushchev had ever said such a thing. The quotation was spurious."

The National Reprint Service of Park Ridge, Ill. (in a current list of items which can be ordered from them) lists this quote printed on a small insert card to be used with other mail. I have written them asking if they could tell me their source, but as yet have received no reply. Since your own book was so thoroughly documented, I assume you have an accumulation of materials which you researched with great care. May I impose upon you to check and see if you can locate this quote. If so, I would appreciate a reply, as I intend to at least have the satisfaction of contacting the author, publisher and my local newspapers. If there is no documentation for the quote--whether or not it was made--I am sure you will agree it should not be used. Of course, we know that Khrushchev has said essentially the same thing--if worse--on other occasions. But, we cannot afford to have the authenticity of other documented materials placed in jeopardy by the use of any item for which we can offer no proof. Unfortunately, conservatives cannot be allowed the same latitude in our statements that the left wing enjoys.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation in this matter, and again complimenting you on your fine book, I am

Dear Sir:

I wish to thank you for doing a fine job for our Nation. Would that we had more men of your quality and perseverance in high places of our government.

After reading "None Dare Call It Treason" it seems your task is sometimes a thankless one. What can we do to make F.B.I. security screening mandatory for all federal officials? Can't the house introduce a bill to make security clearance law?

What is the best way to go about getting appointed officials removed from there position. How would an impeachment action be originated?

My political know how is nil but I intend to try in every way I can to educate myself politically and try to vote and participate to the best advantage of the's great democracy.

Do you approve of the way you have been quoted in "None Dare Call It Treason?" It appears to me, an ordinary citizen, that this is a remarkable book stirring deep feelings of anger at being duped and inciting patriotism and action. I think it should be read by everyone. I would be interested in knowing if you hold this book in the same regard.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

First, may I commend you & express my deep appreciation for your consistent, firm, & constant stand & activities against Communist activity in U. S. Your book, "Masters of Deceit," was a great help to me.

Now, I would appreciate your appraisal of "None Dare Call it Treason" by John A. Stormer. If this book & its documentation is accurate, we are in far more grave danger than I ever realized before, & it needs to be circulated far & wide in these weeks before election. I thought you would be in a better position to know if it is completely reliable than anyone I know, and before I buy more copies to circulate in our circle of friends, I wanted a letter from you assuring us that it is trustworthy. (If it is--I'm almost afraid to believe it is, but if it is, we need to know the truth & be up & busy to defend what freedom we have left.)

I'm afraid without very authoritative assurance that it is accurate, people will not believe it, and will say, "Surely that can't be so, or we would have heard about it before now," as my husband is saying about parts of it.

Thank you.

P. S. I'm assuming you are familiar with the book, since the cover carries a printing total of over 1 1/2 million copies. If not, I will send one. I will be most grateful (& honored) for a letter from you.

Your letter of September 23rd has been received and it is always reassuring to hear from citizens who demonstrate an awareness of the evils of communism and who desire to combat this threat to our freedoms.

I have repeatedly urged Americans to educate themselves regarding the true nature of communism in order that they will be able to resist its eroding influence. It is particularly important that young people, who will be our Nation's leaders in the future, understand this evil philosophy so they can detect it wherever it appears. The best way to defeat communism is through information, education and reliance on our democratic form of government.

While I would like to be of assistance to you, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and neither makes evaluations nor draws conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. Information contained in our files must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice. In view of this, I am sure you will understand why I cannot comment concerning the book, "None Dare Call It Treason," or the other questions you asked. In addition, I hope you will not infer either that we do or do not have information in our files relating to the subjects of your inquiry.

I am enclosing some material on the general topic of communism. You may also wish to refer to my books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." The former was written with the hope that it would help readers gain an insight into the true nature of the communist conspiracy in this country. The latter contains an analysis of international communist practices and contrasts totalitarian methods with life in a free country. These books may be available in your local library.

Dear Sir,

With full respect to you and your Department, and confidence in you as a dedicated American, I feel I must write you. I am assured that you will not mislead or misguide me.

Would you (your Dept.) consider a book I have just read "None Dare Call It Treason" factual? The author John A. Stormer is unknown to me. ^{u.s.} He tells a fantastic and almost unbelievable story. But, there is a ring of truth to it. I Love this country and would prefer that it is not true. But, I must remove blinders from my eyes, and if it is true, I must do what I can to oppose these people who would destroy our American Democracy. I have been busy the last ten years having children, etc, but, it seems to me a lot has happened, and I, in my ignorant state of mind am responsible, as others, by merely being uninformed. I felt if you instilled a love of country and God in your children, and in daily living it was sufficient. I don't think I am wrong on that score, but, today it is not enough.

I would like to know the following information:

~~The Fabians~~ - Are they a menace? Are our elected or appointed officials able or legally permitted to belong to questionable clubs? fraternities, or other organizations?

Is the U. N. communist infiltrated? Is the A. D. A. unamerican? Is the John Birch Society subversive? Is it too late to stop socialism? Is our State Dept. infiltrated with generation of commies?

What exactly is CFR. ~~(Council on Foreign Relations?)~~ ^{u.s.}

Do they actually controll our Country's policies. And if so are they alone suspicious or considered subversive?

Mr. Hoover, please do not insult my intelligence by having your Dept. send me some sort of a form letter. Please do not dismiss my motives for writing you, lightly. I am very much in earnest. I am writing to you because of all the men in our Country's service, you above all stand out, in my estimation, as a truly sincere Patriot. If I may use that word. It is a much forgotten and when remembered, controversial word.

If, there is still truth in the statement that Government is the servant of the people, then there is no reason why I cannot have the information I requested. Please enlighten me. I have grown soft, and lax and stupid.

Tusting that you will do your best to impart to me truth,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I have, today, completed reading a startling publication. It was the book, None Dare Call It Treason, by John A. Stormer. It is one of the most enlightening books that I have ever read. Act 101

I am writing to you for verification of the material stated in the book. Mr. Stormer quotes and refers to you frequently in his book. I consider you one of our nations foremost authorities on communism and how best to fight it. My husband and I, like most young Americans, do not want to believe that the situation is as bad as it is pictured in this book. We are, however, prepared to accept this book as true and do everything in our power to help fight communism if you uphold the statements in this publication. Also, Mr. Hoover, what are the legal standings of the recommended organizations listed along with their various publications? We genuinely want to be good citizens. Please help us to know how.

We realize that my husband's position as an Air Force office may eventually be put in jeopardy if we become active in Anti-Communist organizations. We realize, too, that your organization handles the armed forces security clearance for military personnel. If you feel that association in these anti-communist organizations and groups is beneficial to our country's future we are prepared to be called kooks and perhaps even experience rank and appointment hold backs in my husband's career. 7

I hope that you won't feel that I'm out of place in writing to you. Please, Mr. Hoover, we need good, sound advice.

Sincerely,

In view of this, I am sure you will understand why I cannot comment concerning the book, "None Dare Call It Treason," or the organization about which you asked. In addition, I hope you will not infer either that we do or do not have information in our files regarding the subjects of your inquiry.

It is always reassuring to hear from citizens who demonstrate an awareness of the evils of communism and who desire to combat this threat to our freedoms. I am enclosing some material on the general topic of communism. You may also wish to refer to my books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." The former was written with the hope that it would help readers gain an insight into the true nature of the communist conspiracy in this country. The latter contains an analysis of international communist practices and contrasts totalitarian methods with life in a free country. These books may be available at your local library.

Sincerely yours,

Edgar Hoover

NOTE: Bufiles contain no record identifiable with correspondent. The book, "None Dare Call It Treason," is well known to the Bureau. Bufiles contain no information concerning the Nation Committee for Civic Responsibility. The National Committee for Civic Responsibility, however, was formed according to an informant, for the purpose of exposing activities of individuals associated with groups subscribing to far left and far right policies.

Dear Sir:

I am one of the many John Q. Citizens in this country somewhat confused as to just what the situation is in regard to communism in this country. So, I am asking you for whatever information you can give me that would be helpful. Also I am interested in knowing your opinion of the book None Dare Call It Treason which seems to be causing some controversy. If you have read and if you can, please give me an opinion on this. Also in connection with this book I have read of a group called the Nation Committee for Civic Responsibility which condemns the book. Can you tell me anything about this group. Forgive me if I am asking too much.

Aside from that book I have read a few other pieces of "so called" right wing literature and I am interested in finding out first hand if some of it is really true, so this may seem an unwise request. Can you tell me if there is a communist cell in Atlanta and I am sure there is, and can you tell me if I can become a member or would this be unwise? If I sound like a crackpot, I am really not and would appreciate whatever answer you can give me.

Yours truly,

It was very gratifying to know that the seniors in your civics classes read my book, "Masters of Deceit." My other book, "A Study of Communism" may be equally interesting to them as this book contains an analysis of international communist practices and contrasts totalitarian methods with life in a free country. This book may be available at your local library.

I am enclosing some material which you may find of interest.

I have written to you several times in the past regarding your book, "Masters of Deceit." I told you that I had my Seniors in my Civics classes read your book so that they would understand the dangers of communism to their freedom.

I now want to ask you about another book that was sent to me by a friend. It is called, "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A. Stormer. In it he quotes you quite often, in fact he has an important quote of yours on the back cover. Have you read the book and is it authentic? If what Mr Stormer says is true I think America is in a bad way.

I am happy that you decided to continue as head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I am only one citizen, of many millions who want to thank you for your devoted service to our country.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

JOHN A. STORMER

Like most other Americans, I have always paid little attention to the many changes which occur everyday in America until they affect me. However I have recently been disturbed by several things.

I have just finished reading a book entitled "None Dare Call It Treason". For the first time in my life, I must admit that this book has caused me a great deal of concern about my country. Naturally, I am aware of the political inclinations of the writer, but many of his charges seem well founded and worthy of some explanation or answer.

To get right to the point, I would sincerely appreciate it if you would give me your opinion of the statements made in this book. Of course, I realize that it is difficult to evaluate all the accusations made, but could you tell me whether you feel that the impression left by the writer is a valid one. I ask this of you, because you are often quoted in the book and you are probably aware of the general truth of the information given.

I would also like for you to recommend some source of information which answers or explains the questions asked in "None Dare Call It Treason". In other words, I want an opposite viewpoint before I determine for myself what to believe.

It is easy to understand that America's position in the world is weakening gradually--without reading any information printed by either conservative or liberal. But I want to know what to believe when I read a newspaper or magazine article. Anything you can suggest to help me become a better informed citizen will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Your letter of September 25th has been received and I am always glad to hear from those citizens who are interested in the menace of communism.

With respect to your inquiry, information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice and is available for official use only. Further, it is contrary to my policy to comment on material not prepared by personnel of this Bureau or by me. I regret I am unable to be of help in this instance but trust you will understand the necessary reasons. It is hoped you will not infer either that we do or do not have data in our files relating to the book, "None Dare Call It Treason," or its author.

Your concern about the threat of communism is understandable and your desire to learn more about the nature of this menace is reassuring. I have repeatedly emphasized it is imperative for Americans to study the objectives and operations of the communist conspiracy if we are to effectively resist its eroding influence. I am enclosing literature which includes suggestions all of us can use in combating this evil.

Perhaps you may wish to read my books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." These were written in order to help readers gain an insight into the strategy and tactics of communists, both in this country and abroad. Copies may be available in your local library.

Dear Sir

Recently I read a book called "None Dare Call it Treason", by John A. Stormer. It was shocking to realize the extend of communism in the United States.

I was not fortunate enough to be born here in America. Half of the country from which I came is controlled by communism.

I would greatly appreciate your help and advice in what I could do to help FIGHT communism.

Anything, pamphlets, speeches, anything would be greatly appreciated. For I would rather not marry and raise my children so they can live under communism, and later in life point their fingers at their father saying it was my fault, my ignorance, and my laziness.

THANK YOU

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I have just finished reading John A Stormers "None Dare Call it Treason." I'm sorry to say I have not yet read your book "Masters of Deceit" but I shall very soon. I have sent for the Government Documents he lists at the end of his book. I shall get some of the books he has listed.

I have been preaching some of the things both he and Barry Goldwater have said for years. My friends think I'm a misguided nut.

Now! Who is John A Stormer? What does your office say about him? How does your office evaluate him? Is he what he appears to be, (to me) a true American fighting for our rights or is he like the rest of that feel the same way and are called crackpots? Are we, he misguided crackpots that don't know which way is up? How did he get his information, where? Could I if I put forth the time, effort and money come up with the same book as he has? The one argument I hear most against anything I quote or try to say from the book is -- well! he's talking out of context or that's just his views. How can you retellate it is out of context, they are his views? People want facts. How can you get the facts? Not everyone can carry around the Congressional Record or Senate and House reports or newspaper articles which you can't always believe either.

Can we just by being informed and joining these organizations that Mr. Stormer suggest turn the tide of history or do we according to history have to go the way of Athens and Rome and all the others that have gone before? Can we stir the people out of their apathy and contentedness without a fighting war which we are more apt to lose than win? When I complain to my friends that the people, young and old, don't seem to have any patriotism they say yes but if there's a war they'll all rally around and in the meantime they want to give everything away. 62-109421-174

Captioned individual telephoned long distance this afternoon and, upon referral from the Director's Office, spoke to SA [REDACTED] of the Crime Records Division.

[REDACTED] stated she had just finished reading the book, "None Dare Call It Treason," and wanted to know the FBI's opinion of this book. [REDACTED] was advised of our policy in this regard, and, she stated that she understood completely. She said she was extremely concerned about the menace of communism in the United States and wondered where she could get information on this subject. It was suggested to her that she might desire to obtain from her local public library copies of the Director's books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." [REDACTED] said she appreciated this information very much.

Dear [redacted]

Your letter of September 30th has been received.

While I would like to be of assistance to you, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and neither makes evaluations nor draws conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. Information contained in our files must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice. In view of this, I am sure you will understand why I cannot comment concerning the book, "None Dare Call It Treason," by John A. Stormer. In addition, I hope you will not infer either that we do or do not have information in our files regarding the subject of your inquiry.

It is always reassuring to hear from citizens who demonstrate an awareness of the evils of communism and who desire to combat this threat to our freedoms. I am enclosing some material on the general topic of communism. You may also wish to refer to my books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." The former was written with the hope that it would help readers gain an insight into the true nature of the communist conspiracy in this country. The latter contains an analysis of international communist practices and contrasts totalitarian methods with life in a free country. These books may be available at your local library.

Dear Mr. Hoover;

A number of citizens, including myself, are appalled with the influence the National Council of Churches has on churches in the Escondido area. We know that they are pressing for a "NO" vote on Proposition 14 on the California ballot, which would keep intact the Rumford Bill which is now law.

The reason I am writing, however, concerns the book "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A. Stormer. A Presbyterian minister here in Escondido last Sunday for his sermon held up a copy of this book, and denounced it in front of the entire congregation. He said it was a vicious diatribe and that it accused some clergymen of being either Communists, Communist-fronters, or Communist sympathizers, and told the congregation not to read it for this reason, completely ignoring the main thesis of the book.

I do not contend that the National Council of Churches had anything to do with this action, but it is certainly suspect. What we would appreciate from you is your personal opinion of Mr. Stormer's book, and if you would recommend it for reading by all those who wish to preserve our freedom. We are trying to counteract the action of clergymen who would use the pulpit for political reasons. We are hoping you can give us encouragement on this matter, although we know this may not be possible.

Here's hoping you will be able to continue to serve your country, and to serve FBI another forty years if that be your desire.

Respectfully,

ACK 10-5-64

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I hope that you will find time to read my letter sometime during what must be a very active schedule. I feel I have no one else to turn to for the answer to a very important question. I have just finished reading a book called "NONE DARE CALL IT TREASON", written by John A. Stormer and published by Liberty Bell Press. Since you are one of the few persons in the book whose patriotism and loyalty to our country is unquestioned by the author, I feel that you are the one to answer my question.

If what John Stormer writes is accurate, our country is in very serious trouble of being taken over by either communists and/or socialists. The author gives references in the appendix of the book to all quotes he makes. You are quoted more consistently throughout the book than any other high official, and in each quote you substantiate what points the author tries to make. I am aware of the fact that a clever writer, by quoting out of context can slant the views expressed so as to substantiate an argument or point he wishes to make. However, it seems that the whole theme of the book emphasizes that we are gradually retreating from victory by making concession after concession to the communists; that we are following a "no win" course in many of the cold war areas, and that if we continue at our present rate of domestic and foreign policy we will eventually become a socialistic or communistic government.

Mr. Hoover, I love my country. I believe that capitalism, our system of free enterprise, and all else that America offers is the very best form of government for any people on earth. My question is this: IS THE AUTHOR RIGHT OR IS THIS ANOTHER FORM OF WITCH-HUNTING FOR WHICH WE MUST BE CONSTANTLY ON OUR GUARD? I would like to do something for my country, Mr. Hoover. If you say that this book presents the true facts then I'll do as the author suggests. I'll get as many people as possible to read the book and be made aware of the dangers we face. It worries me that now when I read something, either in newspapers or periodicals, that I may be getting a slanted view of the picture. I've never been active in politics or been a member of any organizations. The only thing I've ever done is vote at each national election. I've been what the author refers to as a "do-nothing." To give me a start in the right direction, please give me your opinion of the above-mentioned book. If you give it your sanction, I'll take the proverbial bull by the horns. Thank you for taking time to read my letter, Mr. Hoover, and thank you to for the service you have rendered to our country as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Dear Sir:

I'm writing to you because I just read a very distrubing book entitled NONE DARE CALL IT TREASON. This was a schoking book to me and I find it very hard to believe that any or all the facts in this book can be true. Since you are mentioned very very frequently in this book I felt that you would be one of the best qualified persons to tell me how much could be believed and not believed in this instance. Of course you are too busy to have me quote this in any length but I will ask you about some of the thnigs that bothered me more than others and hope that you will answer. By the way, 10-1 I have read your book on the way Communism works although at his time I cannot remember the exact title. Now for some of the questions ONE: This book claims that the National Council of Churches is at least a communistist front, two that the counsel on Foreign Relations is full of socialist advocates, THREE that your FBI reports were disregarded in top security clearance for persons in the Stae Department, Defense department, and Sate department, FOURTH that a Presidential order was issued that these files on such persons where not to be allowed to be opened for investigation even by the Senate Internal Security Sub- Commetee. FIFETH that people cannot be patroit unless they are extremist, and that the American history books ect. are one of the causes for this. and Sixth that the PTA is being infiltrated b y socialist people who will subtly conditioned toward Communism.

There where many more things in this book. The whole book while crying out that it is patroitic and helping American citizens to wake up I can't help but feel that these people are undermining our whole system and doing more harm than anything else also they would seem to me to be helping instead of hindering the cause of communism.

There are refernces that these people through the UN are making tredies between our government and foreign governments tthat supercede our Constitutional rights and thus taking out rights away. They also state that if all else in taking over the country for socialism fail those who are still true Americans will be declared insane and committed to institutions by government doctors.

They also claim that the ADA is a soclist group who turns more to internationalist ideals and care little for American ideals.

There aremany many more I could cite but I know you arevery busy and I appreciate your taking the time you have to read myletter and I hope you will be able and willing to answer these questions and perhaps clear up someof the terrible doubt s that this book has raised.

Thank you very much

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Five years ago I first wrote you in regard to concern for my beloved America and asked what I could do. Your reply was that I inform myself.

And so I have. I have listened to speakers, of note--Billy James Hargis, Gen. Walker, Cleon Skousen (Master of them all) etc.

I have read America Listen, The Story of Bang-Jensen, government pamphlets, A Texan Looks at Lyndon, etc. My latest reading has been None Dare Call It Treason, and I am humbled by the many areas in which we are under attack by subversive elements--education, mental health, press and television, and the church. I believe these things to be true, for I have heard and read them too many places too many times not to do so.

It is in connection with this last named book that I write. I want material that I can use in connection with teaching in my neighborhood, and I want you to evaluate None Dare Call It Treason for me if you can, for it is important to me that I have accurate source material. I know nothing of the author which is important also.

It may be that you cannot assist me in this because of the political aspects of the book. If you can, I'd appreciate it, for even though

Revd

my voice be a small one, it is important to me that I base my remarks on a reliable source.

Our State continues to be a target area. I had heard it would be from our National Defense Chairman in the DAR, and indeed it has been.

I do not condone killing and bombing, and I can't think of any intelligent Mississippian who does; however, these acts are the results of great provocation. There is nothing that some of these trouble makers would like more than for our State to be under martial law.

Again I extend my personal welcome to the many new additions from your Bureau to our State. It is regrettable that we have need of them, but we certainly do.

In the event you cannot because of your position, help me by evaluating None Dare Call It Treason, recommend material of value that the average person can benefit by and understand in his fight against this inroad of communism and its many phases.

Thank you.

b6

Earnestly.

NOTE: We have enjoyed cordial relations with Senator Bartlett. By airtel 9/25/64, Anchorage was instructed to look into the background of this matter, and to apprise the responsible person of the provisions of Public Law 670. Anchorage Airtel 10-2-64 pointed out that the ad was misprinted and that the sponsor realized his error and agreed not to do it again. In addition, the newspaper indicated a retraction would be printed; however, the contacting Agent gave no impetus to this provision. Since it is not known whether the paper will print a retraction or not, no reference is being made to this to Senator Bartlett.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Book
My husband and I have just completed ~~NONE DARE CALL IT TREASON~~, a paperback written by John A Stormer, and published by the ~~Liberty Bell Press~~ in Florissant, Missouri. We were completely overwhelmed, and frankly, somewhat discouraged by his alarming presentation of communistic infiltration into the world; especially into our United States of America.

Do you recommend this book as representing a true and undistorted picture of the state of our government, and do you endorse the author as a sincere anti-communist?

We would welcome also, any information, literature, suggested reading lists etc. that you could send us on communism and ways in which we could effectively combat it.

In the book entitled We Dare Call it Treason there is continual reference to CFR, or the Council on Foreign Relations. The author states implicitly and explicitly that this organization is a subversive group set up to undermine this nation.

Do you have any information that would help me to understand the function of this organization? Is this organization considered dangerous or subversive by the FBI or Justice Dep't.?

Thank you for your consideration.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Please forgive this intrusion on your time. Only wish I had the ability to express myself and the time to try and tell you what your contribution to our country has meant over the past many years.

I have just read and am deeply impressed with "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A. Stormer. As you doubtless know he mentions your name, in a most favorable way, many times in his book.

I do not feel that I need any recommendation myself for this book or the author; but I do have many people to ask me about the author and how authentic the facts which he writes are.

Is it asking too much to request that you give me your opinion of this book and the author. I would appreciate anything you might have to say on the subject.

Please keep plugging. We need you more than ever in this country and it will be a dark day, in my humble judgment, when your light might be dimmed. And there are those who would of course like to do just that.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am writing to you in search of answers to a couple of questions that are, to me, very important. I know that you are a very busy man in these days with all the problems that come before the Bureau, but I would appreciate it if you could take a few minutes for an answer.

I have just finished reading a book titled "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A. Stormer. As you probably know this is a documented book on communism giving Congressional Investigating Committee and F.B.I. Reports as references. Since it is probably not possible for me as a private citizen to obtain copies of these reports to check these statements, would you please tell me if the claims this book makes are true to the best of your knowledge? I have heard so many different comments on this book such as "He is an extremist", "The references are taken out of context", etc., that I feel I must find out for sure.

Also, I recently called the local F. B. I. office here in Pittsburgh requesting a list of Communist and Communist Front Organizations. I was told that these lists are not available to the general public. How can I and others like me avoid these organizations unless we know them for what they are. If I were to apply for a job requiring a security check I could have innocently belonged to such an organization without knowing. This would classify me as a security risk. If you cannot supply me with such a list, could you please advise me as to where this information can be obtained?

I would greatly appreciate any information or comments you could give me on the above subjects. Thanking you for your time, I remain,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

You wrote "Masters of Deceit" and no one should be more familiar with the threats of communism than you. The infiltration that communism has made in this country, fills me with fear. I am writing to ask your opinion of the book "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A. Stormer. He seems to have it well-documented, and I thoroly believe the book, but I have been taken to task very severely by certain people who inform me that I have been mis-led. They sent me a clipping from the Christian Science Monitor - Sept. 22, 1964, which denounces John A. Stormer as a prevaricator. They say he is a member of the John Birch Society. As far as I am concerned, I can't see why it is a crime to be a follower of John Birch: They realized the menace of Communism and tried to alert the country, and then were smeared by the Communists, and made to appear in the same class as the Klu-Klux-Klan. Am I wrong in my opinion of them? I would appreciate some information on these subjects.

I thank you for your courtesy.

Yours truly,

You wrote "Masters of Deceit" and no one should be more familiar with the threats of Communism than you. The infiltration that Communism has made in this country fills me with fear. I am writing to you your opinion of the book "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A. Storner. He seems to have it well-documented, and I thoroughly believe the book, but I have been taken to task very severely by certain people who inform me that I have been mis-led.

10-7-64</sup> They sent me a clipping from the Christian Science Monitor - Sept 22, 1964, which denounces John A. Storner as a prevaricator.

^{WAM:ms} ACK 10-7-64 They say he is a member of the John Birch Society. As far as I am concerned,

I can't see why it is a crime to be a follower of John Birch. They realized the message of Communism and tried to alert the country, and then were smeared by the Communists, and were made to appear in the same class as

In addition, I hope you will not infer either that we do or do not have information in our files regarding the subject of your inquiry.

It is always reassuring to hear from citizens who demonstrate an awareness of the evils of communism and who desire to combat this threat to our freedoms. I am enclosing some material on the general topic of communism. You may also wish to refer to my books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." The former was written with the hope that it would help readers gain an insight into the true nature of the communist conspiracy in this country. The latter contains an analysis of international communist practices and contrasts totalitarian methods with life in a free country. These books may be available at your local library.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have just finished reading a book by John Stormer. I feel that I need more information concerning the author to properly evaluate the book.

Would it be possible for you to tell me what you might know of his background and methods? I find it extremely difficult today, with the widespread disregard of actual truth and the use of the half lie, to make judgements from the pronouncements we receive.

Sincerely yours,

HJB/je

Dear Sir:

For many years I have been deeply appreciative of the work done by your department in safeguarding American from within. I have never bothered to write before because, like most Americans, I tended to take these efforts in my behalf as my just due, simply because I was an American. A radical American however, that is now frustrated, angry and frightened.

With [redacted] the ASA now overseas, and [redacted] in a similar division of the coast Guard; a [redacted] at home attending anti-communist study groups with me...I feel I have been doing a reasonably good job through them in my attempts to combat many inner threats, but I can see now that it isn't nearly enough.

I will be able to attend college this fall and even greater than my desire for a degree that will permit me to teach is my determination to challenge and question any phase of instruction that leans toward anti-Americanism.

How much of "No One Dare Call It Treason" can I believe? And where can I find facts to refute much of the pap being ladled out to our youngsters under the guise of 'higher education'?

Please help me. Before it is too late for God to help us all.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir;

I am a retired U. S. Navy Enlisted Man having served 20 years from 1941 to 1961. During this tenure of service and especially so the last few years, I received along with my shipmates a thorough indoctrination in the methods, goals pitfalls, etc., of Communism. Although this by no means qualifies me as an expert in detecting or recognizing Communistic literature, it has made me more aware of the possibilities of it being contained in an innocent appearing book or similar material.

This leads me to the reason for writing you as to whether your organization can refute or confirm my suspicion as to a book I read recently and to one I saw advertised today.

The book I read was ~~"None dare call it Treason"~~ by John A. Stormer, and published by Liberty Bell Press, PO Box 32, Florissant, Missouri. The one I saw advertised for sale but havent read is ~~"A Texan Looks at Lyndon, by J. Evetts Haley, sold by the Freedom Book Store, PO Box 1204, Station A, Fort Smith, Ark.~~

S

I am not trying to be a witch hunter, but there seems to be a deluge of this type literature lately, following the line of tearing down public officials, thereby destroying the peoples faith in their government, all under the guise of fighting Communism.

REC-15 63-616567

Could you tell me ~~if~~ this is just some peoples method of cashing in on a going thing, enriching themselves, or are they misguided souls trying to do right, or are my suspicions base on something concrete. Any information you can give me would be appreciated.

Dear Sir:

I am the [REDACTED] Anchor Lodge No. 182 here in Key West, Florida, and I am respectfully requesting your opinion on a very important matter.

Will you please write me at your earliest opportunity and tell us whether the book "NONE DARE CALL IT TREASON" by John A. Stormer is considered a good source to start on a program of waking up the young people in our country to the dangers of communism.

Many of the brothers are interested in starting a program to preserve some of the freedom that is still left in this great country of ours. We want to start out on the right road and keep going.

If you have read the book and can recommend it to us, we intend to start supplying it to the Public Schools so that the dangers of communism can be understood and a fight to throw it out of this country can be started.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Recently a friend of mine gave me a book to read, "None Dare Call It Treason", by John A. Stormer. You are quoted in the book quite frequently and I respect your judgement.

So I would like to know if you consider this book to be an "authoritative source of information" to be used in the battle against communism? I am particularly interested in the section dealing with communist infiltration into the Churches and Theological Seminaries.

Sincerely,

RDG/bg

I have received the letter dated October 6th from your
I am glad that you found my book, "Masters of Deceit," to be of interest.

While I would like to be of assistance to you, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and neither makes evaluations nor draws conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. Information contained in our files must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice. In view of this, I am sure you will understand why I cannot comment concerning the book, "None Dare Call It Treason," or the other organizations about which you asked. In addition, I hope you will not infer either that we do or do not have information in our files regarding the subjects of your inquiry.

It is always reassuring to hear from citizens who demonstrate an awareness of the evils of communism and who desire to combat this threat to our freedoms. I am enclosing some material on the general topic of communism. You may also wish to refer to my other book, "A Study of Communism." It contains an analysis of international communist practices and contrasts totalitarian methods with life in a free country. It may be available at your local library.

Mr. Hoover;

We have just read with great alarm, the book, "None Dare Call It Treason", by John A. Stormer. As you know (we are certain that this book has been brought to your attention) it is a terrifying account of the growth of Communism in our country and especially of its infiltration into our government, schools, press, and all other means of communication.

Most of us have read your book, "Masters of Deceit", and we are well aware of the great danger which faces our nation and the urgent need for the American people to understand this so they will be able to do their part in combating communism.

On the other hand, it is difficult, if not impossible, for us to accept Mr. Stormer's book at face value. We feel that you alone can provide us with the unbiased, non-partism information needed to evaluate this book and come to a logical conclusion.

Aside from the brief description given on the cover of the book, "None Dare Call It Treason" we have no information on the background of the author.

Mr. Stormer constantly quotes from Congressional records. But are these quotes taken from accusations made on the floor and deleted to suit the author's purpose or are they taken from the conclusions drawn from these hearings?

How can so many good, intelligent men be so duped by Communist strategy? These men have all the Congressional records at their disposal. Many of them were present at these hearings and may have participated in them. Yet Mr. Stormer would have us believe that only a select group of his Republican Party, with the exception of Senator Thomas Dodd of Connecticut, truly understand the Communist menace. Indeed, there are even undertones, if not out and out accusations, that these men may have "sold out" or, infact, are Fabian Socialists or even Communists.

To the layman, "None Dare Call It Treason", is, if it is not factual, is a clear cut case of libel--why, then haven't such suits been brought against it's author?

If Mr. Stormer has given the people, as forth right account of the Communist's conspiracy to enslave America we, as all loyal Americans, will want to champion his cause over and above any party affiliation.

One of our neighbors is a former Nazi who was a prisoner of war in the Soviet Union during and after World War II. This man witnessed the fall of Germany to the Fascists and knows full well the terror of a Communists war camp.

It is this man and his American born wife who gave us Mr. Stormer's book and other literature on the Communist movement. When they first came to [redacted] a few years ago they interested two of the undersigned, [redacted] and several other members of the community in starting neighborhood anti-communists study groups. At their request [redacted] Company in [redacted] lectured the group. [redacted] were very much interested, but as far as they know, nothing else was ever done about it. Now they are anxious to find out if the lecture they attended was of a legitimate nature.

Mr. Hoover, how can the average American distinguish truth from columny and deception, and even various forms of conspiracy? Whom are we to believe? Where, if you canno't supply us with it, can we get reliable information on the following: Fabian Socialism, The American's for Democratic Action, The John Birch Society, Anti-communist study groups, National Committee for Civic Responsibility, and any other information which will help us help our nation and ourselves.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Inasmuch as I have a great deal of respect for you and what you have done for the country, I decided to write you directly.

I am reading "None Dare Call It Treason" by John Stormer. It appears to have been printed by private funds, rather than any publishing company I have ever heard about.

There has been so much conversation and at least one newspaper article concerning the book that I feel it better to go to a respected source rather than get it second handed.

Have you been misquoted or are the quotes out of context? There is so much in the book about incidents I have heard or read over the years. However, putting it altogether makes me feel there is a creeping paralysis in the country. If so, it is stupid for me as well as others to be so apathetic.

I am aware, also, of the political implications and what might be expedient for one running for office.

I know you are busy and perhaps you would not rather answer this but feel you have the knowledge as well as the powers of your own convictions so perhaps you will. This is why I chose to write you rather than anyone else mentioned in the book. I felt I would get an honest, straight-forward answer or an honest, "I would rather not get involved"

I truly hope this reaches your desk as I am very sincere in wanting to know.

SUBJECT: ~~"NONE DARE CALL IT TREASON!"~~
BY JOHN A. STORMER
CENTRAL RESEARCH MATTER

By memorandum dated 6/1/64, the Central Research Unit reviewed the above-captioned book. In this review, it was pointed out that the book is a right wing indictment of certain American leaders who, according to Stormer, have shaped American national and international policy in such a way as to be advantageous to the Soviet Union. The book states that all who oppose the trend toward communism are subjected to ridicule and ruin.

You may be interested to know that The New York Times, Sunday, 10/4/64, carried a very lengthy article dealing with the book, its author, and two other books, namely "A Texan Looks at Lyndon" by J. Evetts Haley and "A Choice: Not An Echo," by Phyllis Schlafly. According to the article, these paperbacks are being sold by the millions as campaign ammunition at Goldwater-For-President headquarters in many sections of the country and are being pushed by members of the John Birch Society. The distribution according to the article, is unprecedented. A total of 7.3 million copies of "None Dare Call It Treason" have been printed since February. The article alleges that Stormer and Haley both published their own books. Stormer allegedly created his own publishing company, Liberty Bell Press, and has expended some $600,000.

U.S.A

The New York Times states that Stormer's book, studied by the National Committee for Civic Responsibility, described as a committee formed last year at Cleveland as a nonpartisan citizens group "to encourage responsible debate and to expose the use of calumny and deception," was evaluated as being "at best an incredibly poor job of research and documentation and at worst a deliberate hoax and a fraud."

Extremist Book Sales Soar

Despite Criticism in G.O.P.

Paperbacks Pushed by Goldwater Camp in Many Areas

By DONALD JANSON

Special to The New York Times

HOUSTON, Oct. 3—Stacked high on tables and in showcases in southwest Houston's supermarket-sized Republican campaign headquarters are copies of J. Evertt Haley's controversial paperback book, "A Texan Looks at Lyndon."

"On order," said Mrs. Donald Mayo, are John A. Stormer's "None Dare Call It Treason" and Phyllis Schlafly's "A Choice Not an Echo."

The three right-wing paperbacks also are being sold as campaign ammunition at other Goldwater-For-President headquarters in many sections of the country.

More than 16 million copies of the book have been printed, including 7.3 million each of the Haley and Stormer books. All were published this year, between February and June.

Never before, trade sources say, have paperback books of any category been printed and distributed in such volume in so short a time. Never before has such literature been used to such an extent in a Presidential campaign.

Johnson Is Target

All three books are written by ultraconservatives. They purport to offer documentation to show that the Johnson Administration is "soft on Communism" and that the President is a man of little principle.

Avid Goldwater partisans express high hopes that the books, disavowed as "smut" and right-wing propaganda by some Republican leaders, will swing close states to the Republican banner.

Democrats concede that the books are being widely discussed, but hope exposure to analysis will win back by Election Day any voter who had strayed.

Among the first organizations to buy, distribute and promote the books was the John Birch Society.

They also have been purchased by the hundreds of thousands by individual Goldwater supporters and mailed free to friends and strangers alike.

Some End Up in Trash

Much of the circulation is duplicated and ineffective, however. Many voters have received a number of copies in the mail. Some Goldwater partisans pass them on. Others say they toss them into the waste basket.

Free mailings and cut-rate sales at campaign headquarters are continuing, but a more recent development that has heartened backers of the Republican candidate is the brisk sale of single copies at full retail prices throughout the country.

No longer are these paperbacks offered only at rightwing bookshops or in a flood of give-away mailings. They are now stocked and prominently displayed at general bookstores from coast to coast.

Frequently they are best sellers in these shops and department stores, drug store chains, supermarkets and newsstands.

In some cases right-wing pressure was applied to get stores to stock the books.

Troy Harper, a downtown paperback outlet in San Francisco, ordered the Haley book only after repeated demands for it in which the callers asked why it was not offered and whether the store was "Communist."

Given to Drugstores

Goldwater partisans got some chain drugstores in the Los Angeles area started by giving them large lots of the books free.

In Cleveland, Klein News, distributor of the books for the area, is supplied by the local outlet of the Birch Society for 20 cents a copy with the unlimited right to return unsold copies. Retail prices are 75 cents and $1.

Despite a hands-off policy on the part of the Republican National Committee, Goldwater campaign headquarters in many parts of the country have jumped into the effort to put the books in the hands of as many voters as possible.

This is true, for example, in St. Louis, Denver, Salt Lake City, Nashville, Miami, Cincinnati and Houston.

Even regular Republican headquarters are selling the books in some counties, such as Dade in Florida.

"If we could get everyone to read it we would have it made," said Marcus Kyle, the Dade County Republican chairman. He was speaking of "None Dare Call It Treason."

Lloyd Waring, state chairman of the Massachusetts Goldwater Committee, says it is good politics to make use of the books. Others hedge.

The regular Harris County

Republican Headquarters here, unlike the party's campaign headquarters for the Southwest District of Houston, does not sell the books. But it refers inquiries to one of its volunteer workers in the building, who keeps a supply in her car outside.

The books were placed on sale in Republican headquarters in Salt Lake City three weeks ago after considerable soul-searching.

After receiving "a vast number of inquiries," State Chairman Ray Child sounded out Republican leaders and the books were stocked despite the strong opposition of Thomas Judd, a Republican candidate for Congress.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie of Idaho, chairman of the Republican Governors Conference, has termed "A Texan Looks at Lyndon" and similar books "smut" and urged that they not be used in the campaign.

Colorado's Republican chairman, Paul W. Wolf, said his office would "try to produce votes by entirely different methods."

Charles Percy, Republican candidate for Governor of Illinois, said he could use "only a straight-forward issues approach, without any personal attacks."

Gov. John Anderson Jr. of Kansas, immediate past-chairman of the National Conference of Governors, called use of the paperbacks "dirty politics."

But he added that "there are a lot of people circulating and reading them and they're going to show their mud." He went on:

"People are saying, If must be true or Johnson would sue."

Sources close to the President in Washington take the position that the attacks in the Haley book are incredible and will be accepted only by those who want to believe them anyway.

Lee Edwards, deputy director of information for the Republican National Committee, said "the official policy of the committee is not to recommend or endorse publications prepared outside the committee."

But Mr. Edwards added that "we have no way of controlling people out in the field."

Attacks on President Assailed as 'Smut' and Scurrilous

Most Popular Items

At its headquarters two blocks away in Washington the Citizens For Goldwater Committee refers the thousands of inquiries it gets for the right wing books to the Adelphi Distributing Corporation in Houston. The corporation is owned by Mrs Eloise Liles a member of the Birch Society.

Mrs Liles also has two retail bookstores. Because of interest in the election she said the three controversial books are her best sellers. They are prominently displayed along with Goldwater pop soap buttons and other campaign paraphernalia.

Like bookstores everywhere she also offers several biographies including competent critical biographies of the candidates books of general interest and sharply anti Goldwater books such as Barry Goldwater Extremist on the Right by Fred J Cook.

The Democratic National Committee has sold more than 50 000 copies of the Cook paperback. It receives a commission from the publisher for each sale.

Sale and distribution of anti Goldwater books has been small compared with that of the right wing's big three.

A total of 73 million copies of None Dare Call It Treason have been produced since February by the W. F. Bell Printing Company of Chicago largest paperback printer in the world at a cost to Mr Stormer the author of some $600 000.

The 73 million mark was reached last month by A Texan Looks at Lyndon, which came out last June.

In both cases the author published his own book creating a company for the purpose. Mr Stormer's is the Liberty Bell Press. It was housed first in his home in Florissant a suburb of St Louis. Now it shares a small building on the same street with a beauty parlor.

Mr Haley's publishing house is the Palo Duro Press. Palo duro or hard wood is the name of a nearby canyon. The office is in Mr Haley's modest home in Canyon Tex.

Both authors started with small press runs. The Birch Society placed large orders for its 200 American Opinion book stores and the authors increased orders for new printings to half a million copies at a time.

The loan became too much for the small Stephens Printing Corporation of Sandusky Ohio which got Mr Haley's first order. It farmed out some of the job to the J W Clement Company of Cleveland the country's second largest printer of paperbacks.

The two Ohio companies have also shared the job of printing two million copies of A Choice Not an Echo. Mrs Schlafly set up the Pere Marquette Press in Alton, Ill where she lives as the publisher. Like the others, it is simply a small order taking office.

To keep up with the demand for his book Mr Haley soon added two more printers Hall and a company in the mid South he said he preferred not to name.

The tall, blunt author publisher rancher has had to turn his entire home into an office. Telephones and typewriters and two secretaries have been installed in the kitchen and a spare room to keep up with the orders.

Sales from Canyon and other distribution points the 63 year old Texan said are averaging 50 000 copies a day.

The Canyon post office has had a Christmas rush since June said B E McCormick in charge of the distribution operation.

A Texan Looks at Lyndon sells for a dollar or 30 cents a copy in lots of 1 000 or more. The other two books are priced at 75 cents each and 20 cents in bulk.

Trade sources estimated that printing storage sales and shipping costs of the Stormer book handled in its present volume would be about 10 cents a copy even at the bulk rate or more than $700 000 so far.

At his middle-class ranch home in Florissant he denied reports that the Birch Society had subsidized publication of None Dare Call It Treason his first book.

Mr Stormer left his last job as editor of an electrical trade magazine in 1962 to work on the book. He said he had saved enough money to support his family and stand the expense of publishing a book.

Born in Pennsylvania

The 36 year old native of Pennsylvania said he was not a member of the Birch Society but that his wife was. He is chairman of his Congressional District's Goldwater Committee and until recently was chairman of the Missouri Federation of Young Republicans.

His book is described on the cover as the carefully documented story of America's retreat from victory. Its theme is the familiar right wing message that the nation is perilously close to total subjugation because of its leader's conspiratorial failure to deal effectively with Communism.

Many readers express awe at the book's elaborate documentation but few of them have apparently seen a recent study on None Dare Call It Treason by the National Committee for Civic Responsibility.

The committee was formed last year in Cleveland as a non partisan citizens group to encourage responsible debate and to expose the use of calumny and deception.

Since this book contains 818 references supposedly substantiating the material contained therein the committee reported it gives the appearance of being the well documented study it claims to be. Nothing could be further from the truth.

The committee concludes that the Stormer book is at best an incredibly poor job of research and documentation and at worst a deliberate hoax and a fraud.

After receiving the committee's report the American Legion in Cleveland canceled plans to distribute the book as part of a fund raising activity.

A Texan Looks at Lyndon has been as sharply criticized as the Stormer book largely because of the author's reliance on rumor.

The book subtitled A Study in Illegitimate Power is laced with such phrases as Johnson's reported to have.

It was rumored and many persons believe

Mr Haley author of a dozen books and booklets on Texas pan handle history conceded in an interview in his booklined study that he had made liberal use of rumor but contended that rumor is a psychological phenomenon in the public mind, the existence of which is a historical fact.

He said he expected his book to stand as critical history.

Mr Haley ran for Governor in 1966 on a platform of racial segregation and states rights.

Mr Haley, a blunt but courteous former cowboy is chairman of Texans for America an ultra conservative group that scrutinizes textbooks to make sure they promote free enterprise sufficiently. He said he had compiled files on Mr Johnson ever since he 'stole' the 1948 election from the candidate favored by the rancher.

A C Greene editor of the editorial page of The Dallas Times Herald wrote recently that Haley is a historian with some excellent writing to his credit, but he despises historical principles and takes up personal hatred as his guide for 'A Texan Looks at Lyndon'.

A Choice Not an Echo, Mrs Schlafly's first book, is a slim volume that was aimed at helping Senator Goldwater to the Republican Presidential nomination.

The theme is that a small group of secret king makers, in the liberal Eastern wing of the party has selected the Republican nominee since 1936. Hundreds of thousands of copies were distributed in California before the crucial primary election and the national convention there.

The next book for the Pere Marquette Press of Alton is Mrs Schlafly's second book.

It is called "The Gravediggers" and subtitled "Who is Really Risking Nuclear War?"

Robert A W Welch Jr, founder of the Birch Society, has written that Mrs. Schlafly is a very loyal member of the Birch Society.

Other right wing paperbacks and tracts aimed at electing Senator Goldwater also are appearing at bookstores, on newsstands, and at Goldwater campaign headquarters throughout the country.

Most popular next to the big three, is a 25 cent tabloid on newsprint called "LBJ: A Political Biography." The right wing Liberty Lobby of Washington D C, has published a million copies.

Books Sold in New York

Books making extreme attacks on President Johnson, which are being pushed around the country by groups supporting Senator Barry Goldwater, are being sold in book outlets of the New York City area but not in such numbers as reported in regions of the West.

Executives in the book trade agree that commercial distribution of the books is limited somewhat by amateurish sales methods of the publishers of the political tracts. Free distribution of the books by political action groups also limits sales.

Doubleday & Company reports that in its 22 bookstores 11 of which are in the New York area the most popular of these books is A Texan Looks at Lyndon. Total sales have been somewhere between 3,000 and 5,000 it is estimated.

None Dare Call It Treason and A Choice Not an Echo have had less but somewhat comparable sales.

The head of the book branch of a New York department store said none of these titles were on sale simply because of the insistence of the publishers that cash be paid in advance for their books. Such payment is against the store's policy.

Arnold Swenson manager of the Columbia University Book Store said none of the three titles were on his list for the reason that no salesman had ever approached him with an offer to deliver the books.

Charles Anderson who operates the Anderson Book Store in Larchmont, N.Y., reported he had all three books on sale and prominently displayed even though I consider them contemptible.

POLITICAL PAPERBACK J. Evetts Haley's "A Texan Looks at Lyndon" is one of the publications available at the Republican headquarters in Houston and other centers.

I have received your letter of October 6th and the thought prompting you to write is appreciated.

With respect to your inquiries, information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice and is available for official use only. I regret I am unable to be of help in this instance but trust you will understand the necessary reasons for this policy. It is hoped you will not infer either that we do or do not have data in our files relating to the book or organization you mentioned.

I am enclosing some literature I hope will be of interest. Perhaps you will also wish to refer to my books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." These were written with the hope that they would help readers gain an insight into the true nature of the communist conspiracy in this country and abroad. Dear Sir:

I have just finished reading a book called "None Dare Call it Treason", by John Stormer. I do not ordinarily believe everything I see in print, but because of the supposedly careful documentation, I wonder, could what he says be substantially correct?

I know that you are not in the business of reviewing books, but I know of no other place to turn to get the straight facts on this subject, so I turn, sir, to you. I would be very much interested in your appraisal of this book; and if you are so disposed, I believe millions of others would be interested in a public statement by you, in whom we all have the utmost confidence, in view of the fact that some 7 million copies of the book have been circulated throughout the country.

One specific question, is the ADA a Communist Front organization, as Mr. Stormer says, or is it a "Strongly anti-communist organization", as Senator Humphrey says?

I hope you will give this your careful consideration. The patriotic citizens of this country again need your help. Thank you.

Respectfully,

Letters to the Editor

Best-Seller

SIR: Mary McGrory, in reviewing Senator Goldwater's campaign in the South, refers to a best-seller in Memphis as "They Dare Not Call It Treason" by John Stormer.

A book that has sold over 4,000,000 copies in 7 months, without the benefit of reviews by the major news media, deserves to be correctly identified. "None Dare Call It Treason" is the title, and it deals not only with Communist infiltration in the Government, but also into our schools, churches, minority groups, etc. The book is well-documented and is entitled to more attention than it has received thus far.

Robert C. Buckley

Baker and LBJ

SIR: The Star knows that the operations of Bobby Baker as Secretary of the Senate Majority give signs of being one of the greatest scandals in the history of Congress. The Star knows that Bobby Baker's apparent mentor in the Senate was then Senator Lyndon Johnson. The Star knows that the Senate majority leadership has adamantly refused to explore the range and penetration of the Baker corruption and the sources of the Baker power. The Star knows that the Senate majority is the obedient puppet of President Lyndon Johnson, whom it has credited with recent legislative achievement.

The Star concludes that the American public should:

- a. Vote no-confidence in the Senate.
- b. Elect Lyndon Johnson President.

Brilliant deduction, my dear Watson!

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I know you and your department are kept quite busy, but I was wondering if you could find the time to answer a couple of questions for me.

The first question is in regard to the book titled, "None Dare Call It Treason", written by John A. Stormer. I know I can get an investigating committee's report on it from my congressman, but after reading the book, I don't know if I could honestly sit down and say that I believe the report in its entirety. From news I have gathered, the report is highly critical of the book. The question I have for you is whether or not the people referred to in the book as communists are really communists? I am very concerned as I know quite a few other people are who have read the book. In fact, some of them are waiting for your answer to this letter. I have read a lot of your literature on Communism and I truly felt that of all the people in the United States you would be the most honest man in answering this. My theory is that if only 50% of the book is correct, it is enough to make your hair "stand on end". I have been quite concerned over this "Un-Godless" Communism (which is like a creeping cancer). For the past 10 years, it has literally obsessed my mind. I have talked and talked to people trying to get them as concerned as I was, but with some people, they "just aren't concerned, but with others that are concerned, they always say, "But what can I do about it"? My answer is always the same. If there isn't anything else they can do, they can at least teach their children and try to get other people concerned over this menace. I have an 11 year-old daughter who is quite average in all respects. But, I bet she knows more about God, Democracy, and Communism than a lot of adults.

Also, I was wondering if you have any literature on the facts of Communism other than the two books put out by the Un-American Activities Committee. I have both of these books but find them rather hard to read. In order to fully understand them, I must have an American dictionary, an encyclopedia, a Russian dictionary, and time, and all I have a lot of are the first two. I'm just an average American with an average intelligence.

As a last comment, I would like to say that I sincerely feel that the book, "None Dare Call It Treason", has shocked more people into the realization of this "deadly" Communism than any other published article or book. Even the "dead-set" liberals are reading it with concern.

Anything I can do to help give support to our great Democracy, I am more than willing to do.

writing to you because I have a problem which I feel you are more

In my home town of Albany, the local evening paper, "The Knickerbocker News" announced its support for L. B. J. and H. H. H. In an editorial, it attacked the book None Dare Call It Treason by John A. Stormer. It quoted the National Committee for Civic Responsibility, who published a detailed study of the book, thusly, "In summary, the subject book is, at best, an incredibly poor job of research and documentation; and, at worse, a deliberate hoax and a fraud.... in case after case, the author has subverted those references to give a totally erroneous impression and even to say precisely the opposite what his own reference claims." The report also notes that certain assertions are printed in right-wing publications without proof, then quoted by other right-wing organizations, thereby compiling "an extensive file of meaningless documentation... Stormer's pretensions to scholarship and documentation might easily deceive many high-minded and intelligent, but largely inexperienced, people and undermine their patriotism by creating doubts about our political, social, and economic system." This then is the main idea expressed by this editorial. I, on the other hand, do not believe in aid to Communist countries, recognition of Communist governments, and I do not reject as ridiculous Senator Barry Goldwater's charge that this Administration has been "soft on communism." In short, my opinion is this: I want to be informed, not misinformed. I would like to believe what is written in None Dare Call It Treason, but not if it is not true. As a result, I come to you, asking for your opinion of the book. Please send your answer to:

Dear Sir,

I have had numerous people bring or offer me copies of the book "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A Stormer and ask that I read it before the presidential election.

I hesitate to value any book until I know something about its author and since I notice that he quotes Mr. Hoover quite often I thought perhaps you could help me by giving me some information concerning the author and book.

My daughter, a high school junior, is extremely doubtful that I will receive a prompt reply to my request for information. I hope you will renew her faith in government and prove her wrong.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I have just completed None Dare Call It Treason and have been very much upset by it. It seems fantastic that so many corrupt deals and near acts of treason could have occurred in our government without our knowledge. I would like to know exactly how much of this book to take seriously and how much is grossly misrepresented. If our government is in as bad shape as this book says it is, what can we, as loyal American citizens who love our country, do to correct these awful conditions? I only pray to God that matters aren't as bad as None Dare Call It Treason depicts them, yet I cannot help but believe that they are. As a future [redacted] it frightens me to think of what is in the future for our younger children.

I would appreciate any help, information, or encouragement you could give me. With many thanks for you and all you have done in the cause for freedom and the fight against communism, I am sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I have just completed None
DARE CALL IT TREASON and have been very much upset by it. It seems fantastic that so many corrupt deals, and near acts of treason could have occurred in our government without our knowledge. I would like to know exactly how much of this book to take seriously and how much is grossly misrepresented. If our government is in as bad shape as this book says it is, what can we, as loyal American citizens who love our country, do to correct these errors?

DEAR SIR:

WITH SO MANY CONFLICTING STATEMENTS AND VIEWS BEING PRESENTED TO US FROM EVERY SIDE, IT IS VERY DIFFICULT TO KNOW WHAT IS THE TRUTH OR JUST WHO IS THE ENEMY IN THIS COUNTRY.

I HAVE READ THE BOOK "NONE DARE CALL IT TREASON" BY JOHN STORMER AND BELIEVE IT TO TRUE. I ALSO BELIEVE THAT MEN LIKE MAJ. EDGAR BUNDY AND DR. SCHWARTZ AND ORGANIZATIONS SUCH AS THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY ARE SINCERELY TRYING TO SAVE OUR COUNTRY FROM COMMUNISM. BUT I HAVE MANY FRIENDS AND RELATIVES WHO ARGUE THAT THE BIRCH SOCIETY IS EQUALY AS DANGEROUS AS THE COMMUNIST AND SOME WHO ARE CONVINCED THAT THEY ARE REALLY A COMMUNIST ORGANIZATION PARADING UNDER THE BANNER OF PATRIOTISM; THAT "NONE DARE CALL IT TREASON" IS A COMMUNIST PUBLICATION AIMED AT CAUSING SUSPICION AND DISTRUST.

ARE MR. STORMER, MAJ. BUNDY AND THE BIRCH SOCIETY CORRECTLY TRYING TO WARN US OF A PRESENT DANGER OR AM I WRONG? YOUR OFFICIAL POSITION ON THIS MATTER WOULD BE GREATLY APPRECIATED.

THANK YOU.

I have read with deep concern many of your admonishings of Communism in our Government. I have been apprehensive of many of our Government's policies and still fairly convinced when explanations were forthcoming by our Statesmen.

After reading, "None Dare Call It Treason" by John Stormer everything seems to terrifyingly fall in place. If this book is true, we also have thought that "Apathy in Government" referred to people who didn't vote and seemingly had no interest in their country-- had better stop being apathetic.

I implore you to give me your fair appraisal of this book.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director

Dear Mr. Hoover;

Recently I was given a copy of the book "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A. Stormer. The book presents a number of facts on Communist filtration into our government and its influence on our foreign policies for the past 20 years or so. Since my family has lived near Washington D. C. for most of my life, I know that a number of the items referred to in the book are true, but I was frightened to find out that treasonous acts have been increasing in frequency and that personnel whom I thought had been released from government service years ago are still in our government and rising to higher and higher positions.

The facts in this book are so appalling that I felt it was my duty to determine the validity of this material as well as the integrity of the writer. Therefore, I called your local office in Lexington, Kentucky and talked to Special Agent Roderick on Monday, October 5. He was very courteous but said that he was not in a position to comment on the book or its author and suggested I write directly to your office.

If you would be so kind, I would like the answer to the following three questions:

1. Are the facts as presented in the book correct?
2. Is Mr. Stormer a reliable person of honesty and integrity, unattached to any radical group led to distorting the truth?
3. If the answers to the above two questions are yes; what can I, as a concerned American Citizen, do to help in the fight against this increasing menace?

Throughout the years you have periodically warned the American Citizen not to be complacent and to guard against this menace creeping into our country. All I am asking is what can I do as an individual to help in this fight.

I have always admired you and your organization for the fantastic job you have done in protecting our country and its people. I want to congratulate you on having your office continued recently and wish you many more years of successful service.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We are grateful for the way you have protected our country through your work with the FBI. Because of your personal integrity, and because of your staff's devotion to that which is right and good, you are preserving the Christian principles on which this country was founded.

Two questions, please, if you have time. (1) The book by John A. Stormer, None Dare Call It Treason, quotes you at length. Is the book properly documented and factually true?

(2) As an ex-GI and a father of five fine children, what can I do best to fight communism? What organizations might you recommend?

My wife and I are concerned about the communist-socialist movement, particularly within our own country. We need your advice.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am writing you in regards to the book
"None Dare Call It Treason".

In it, Mr. Storner is attacking the literature, namely, the Methodist Youth Worker, and the Adult Student, of the Methodist Church. I am a Methodist and very concerned about all this.

What I would like to know is, are there subversives at the head of our church as quoted by Mr. Storner? Also do you think the book written as it is would encourage communism instead of alerting the church going people? Do we have reason to be concerned about this, or should we ignore it?

Mr. Storner has named Dr. Harry Ward as a communist, also Dr. Walter Russell Bowie, and Bishop Oxnam among others. Are they communists or have had communists affiliations?

Please Mr. Hoover, we are trying to get our church straightened out on this matter and we are looking to you for enlightenment.

Please, may I hear from you real soon?

From a concerned Methodist,
Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am writing to you as a private citizen, to ask if you are willing to tell me your opinion as to whether the facts in the book "None Dare Call it Treason", by John A. Stormer, are valid--or if the book is rather an attempt to shake the public faith in our government, thereby playing into communistic hands.

This may seem to be an extremely strange request to make of you. However, I feel that you of all people, would be in possession of the facts.

The reason I make this request is that if this book is valid, I am going to do everything that I can to help in putting a stop to these policies, by trying to help educate the public in what is going on. I feel that the majority of private individuals feel as I do, in that we don't know who or what to believe due to the fact that we are basically uninformed.

On the other hand, I would hate to start off on a campaign based on facts that were basically meant only to shake our faith in our government & its officials.

I sincerely hope that you are willing to give me your opinion.

I realize that one individual is not going to smash communism, but I do hope that I can help in some small way, because if one person can do nothing, this would mean that ultimately knowone can---& I'd hate like heck to think of the consequences of that.

Thank you very much for taking time to read my letter.
I hope that you can help.

Dear [redacted]

Your letter of October 12th has been received.

While I would like to be of assistance to you, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and neither makes evaluations nor draws conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. Information contained in our files must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice. In view of this, I am sure you will understand why I cannot comment concerning the book, "None Dare Call It Treason," by John A. Stormer. In addition, I hope you will not infer either that we do or do not have information in our files regarding the subject of your inquiry.

It is always reassuring to hear from citizens who demonstrate an awareness of the evils of communism and who desire to combat this threat to our freedoms. I am enclosing some material on the general topic of communism. You may also wish to refer to my books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." The former was written with the hope that it would help readers gain an insight into the true nature of the communist conspiracy in this country. The latter contains an analysis of international communist practices and contrasts totalitarian methods with life in a free country. These books may be available at your local library.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

After reading the book "None Dare Call it Treason" by John A. Stormer, I assumed that his statements were true and that I would be helping to defeat Communism in our country by ordering 100 copies to be distributed to my friends and acquaintances. Since placing this order, I have heard and read many opposing views of the book. I am very concerned that any action I take not be detrimental. As I consider you the foremost authority in America on this vital subject, I would like to have your opinion of the validity of the statements contained in this book.

I would be most grateful for your personal attention to this matter.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have just read John Stormer's "None Dare Call it Treason." For the sake of brevity I will say that it has left me in a state akin to shock. I am forty-one years of age and proud to be an American citizen, but I realize with regret, that I have been too complacent about the security of our great country. Now I am alarmed and confused but, before I think further or do anything about this matter I must have some information. I appeal to you for help because, since reading John Stormer's book, I feel that I cannot trust anyone else.

Will you please advise me on the following:
Is John Stormer's book unbiased, factual, accurate?
Do you approve, and can you add to, the reading list in the back of the book?

Since some of your newspapers, periodicals, and other printed materials are said to be very subtly salted with subversive devices, how can I identify those which are?

How can I know which organizations of any kind practice subversion in one way or another?

Is there any available list of people, groups of people, and their works who and which have been connected with subversive activity, either directly or indirectly?

Dear Mr. Hoover:

At the present time many copies of the paper back book, "None Dare Call It Treason" by John Stormer, are being circulated throughout our community.

I, and many others, are greatly alarmed by its contents, which include some statements reputedly made by you.

I am aware of the subtle way that pro-communist literature can be circulated under the guise of the "save America Cry."

It is because of this book and its implications that I am writing you as to whether the book is entirely factual or whether facts are inserted in appropriate places to substantiate the authenticity of the book.

Realizing how busy you are, I would sincerely appreciate you taking time to answer this letter, since you are one person whose answers would not be politically motivated.

Very truly yours,

NOTE: Bufiles reflect that there is no derogatory information concerning A. J. Ruttenber and we have had no prior correspondence with him. However, a letter of appreciation was sent in November, 1962, to the Managing Editor of the Sarasota News regarding an article written by Ruttenber entitled "With Real Lawmen Every Shot Counts." We have had cordial relations with the Sarasota News. Bufiles contain no information identifiable with The Florida Methodist. The question concerning Assistant Director Sullivan's religious faith was brought to Assistant Director Sullivan's attention and he advised that correspondent could be informed as above. According to Smith to Sullivan memorandum dated June 1, 1964 concerning a review of the book, "None Dare Call It Treason," a reference to Assistant Director William C. Sullivan's speech was pointed out. Stormer makes reference to a speech of Assistant Director William C. Sullivan at the Highland Park Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas, on October 19, 1961 in which Mr. Sullivan stated that on a national scale, there has been no substantial communist infiltration of the American clergy. The author states that Mr. Sullivan is correct, but that these remarks are used, while ignoring other remarks, to discredit the anticommunists who are concerned with the few hard-core clergymen who are serving something other than God.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

You will recall the writer of this letter as the former associate editor of the Sarasota News and for my stories on crime, including the Gettis Lee Case.

Now in this capacity which I took over last October I find the need for some complete information to help set the record straight regarding Inspector Sullivan's report as referred to in John Stormer's book, "None Dare Call It Treason."

As former Washington correspondent during the battles of the Hollywood march, etc., I am doing what I can to combat this distorted version as peddled by Stormer.

I need a copy from you of the complete remarks made by Inspector Sullivan regarding communism and the church which is misquoted and misused by Stormer. Also isn't Sullivan a Methodist, and if so, what church?

The above captioned individual telephoned the Bureau long distance today and spoke to SA John W. O'Beirne of the Crime Research Section. He wanted to know Mr. Hoover's attitude toward "None Dare Call It Treason" written by John A. Stormer.

He indicated that he regards this to be an excellent publication and most likely completely in line with Mr. Hoover's thinking regarding the communist menace. He would like to have Mr. Hoover write him a letter of endorsement concerning this book.

[redacted] was informed that Mr. Hoover is unable to comment on any individual publication or organization and that furnishing him such a letter would be contrary to his long-standing policy. In addition, he was advised that the files of the FBI are confidential and that he should not draw any inference concerning whether or not the information in this book is or is not reflected in the files of the FBI.

Dear Sir

I see by the paper that a certain person needs to acquaint himself with a few facts before criticizing some one else. First he should read his Bible more than his letter indicates.

As to the book, 'None Dare Call It Treason' The author of this book is not an oil million arie from Texas He was born in Altoona Pennsylvania he attended the Pennsylvania State University and graduated from California's San Jose College in 1954 after Korean War service as an Air Force historian He is a member of Sigma

Delta Chi the professional journalism society The book is published in Florissant Missouri

The letter writer seems to base his knowledge on the columns of old Drew Pearson Ex president Mr Harry Truman told the Country years ago what old Drew Pearson is Poor Drew has not told the truth in so long if he tried to tell the truth now it would choke him to death

Mr J Edgar Hoover has recommended the book, 'None Dare Call It Treason,' as a good book and should be read by every American

Too many people say communism is a threat but do not understand communism and how the communist Fabians and other socialistic groups work Also, that there is no difference between these socialistic Pholosophers and the present day bureaucrats in Washington The end results of all socialism is dictatorship

We remember how Lenin Hitler Mussolini and Castro said they were for the poverty stricken people and we know what the end results were dictatorship

We here in America are on the same road to dictatorship disguised as welfare programs centralized in Washington We have already witnessed many instances where the Federal Government has cut off or threatened to cut off these welfare programs if the people fail to submit to the dictates of the bureaucrats in Washington This book None Dare Call It Treason, tells how the program to make our Government into a socialistic form of Government is being carried out by the Harvard Fabians

The Communists have said they could take this Country over without firing a shot They knew the Harvard Fabians would do it for them Too the Communist knew they could intimidate a certain group of people and make communist tools out of them by making fun of them and calling them names such as reactionary right ist & etc These Communist tools of today are best known as moderates They are too weak to stand up and fight the centralization of power in Washington

Respectfully submitted

Your letter of October 14th has been received, and I want to thank you for the kind comment you made in our behalf.

I am enclosing a copy of the list of organizations which have been cited as subversive by the Department of Justice of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450, in addition, to some other material on the topic of communism which I trust will be of interest. You may also wish to secure a copy of "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" prepared and released by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. In it are listed groups and periodicals which have been cited by various state and Federal agencies, and a copy of it can be purchased for seventy cents from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402.

Sincerely yours,

D. Edgar Hoover

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir; - Would it be possible to have the names of the subversive organizations in the U.S. published periodically in the newspapers so as to protect the public from donating to them?

I am reading "None Dare Call it Treason" and it is almost unbelievable the purported subversive acts that are going on in our country practically unchallenged and upheld by our high officials unknowingly or otherwise.

Appreciating the good work done by your Office, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,

Salt Lake City, Utah
